

The Universidad de Zaragoza is the main centre of higher education and technological innovation in the Ebro Valley and has great prestige among the group of both Spanish and European universities it has relations with.

The Universidad de Zaragoza is the only public university in Aragon and extends its activities to the three provinces of Aragon, with teaching and research centers in Huesca, Teruel and Zaragoza.

Through the Vice-Rectorship for International Relations, the Universidad de Zaragoza participates in various exchange programmes, collaborating with universities and research centers from Europe, Latin America, USA & Canada, Australia and Japan, thereby strengthening its international standing.

Specific information about academic calendar, academic authorities, exam regulations, main University regulations and admission and registration dates and procedures can be found at: <http://wzar.unizar.es/servicios/ingles/insti/prese.htm>

Fees are mandatory and non-refundable (except on exceptional cases). The fee depends on the number of Credit Units (1 UZ credit = 10 hours; 1 ECTS "European Credit Transfer System" = 25 hours) and the programme type registered (regular, visiting or exchange student).

Location

The Universidad de Zaragoza has more than five centuries of history (it was created in 1542). Located in the Spanish region of Aragón, the Universidad de Zaragoza has its headquarters in the city of Zaragoza, ZAZ (pop. ~700,000), the chief town of the region. Zaragoza, the sixth largest city of Spain, is located on the crossing of two neuralgic axes in north-eastern Spain, with a driving distance of ~300-350 km to and from Madrid, Barcelona, Valencia, Bilbao and Toulouse (France). Zaragoza is connected by plane (flying time 2h max) with the most important European cities (Paris, London, Rome, Milan, Brussels and Frankfurt) and by high speed train with Madrid (1h15min), Barcelona (2h), Seville (3h30min) and Malaga (3h45min). The Universidad de Zaragoza has campuses in other cities of Aragón such as Huesca (74 Km from ZAZ), Teruel (170 from ZAZ), La Almunia de doña Godina (56 Km from ZAZ) and Jaca (140 from ZAZ).
